MUSIC CAN
What if YOUR BANK
was changing the community for the better?

We know. It sounds unlikely. But here’s the truth: Tompkins VIST Bank has been giving back to the community for decades. Social responsibility has always been at the core of who we are.

The money you deposit with us does good in your community. It’s donated to local nonprofits, and used for loans for people right here. Not to mention, our employees volunteer thousands of hours of their time each year.

We hope that makes you proud to work with us. But most of all, we hope it makes our community a little better.

Founded in 1908, Blanche Wolf Kohn and Jeanette Selig Frank began Settlement Music School as the music program of the College Settlement in Philadelphia’s Southwark section offering services to newly arrived immigrants in the community.

The music program grew rapidly from volunteers offering piano lessons for a nickel to a full program of instruction in all musical instruments taught by professionals, including several members of the Philadelphia Orchestra.

By 1914, Settlement was incorporated as an independent community school of the arts. The current Mary Louise Curtis Branch building was built in 1917.

In the 1940s and ‘50s, Settlement experimented with remote satellite and branch locations, and by 1960 had established the Germantown and Northeast (later the Kardon-Northeast) branches.

In the 1970s, Settlement undertook an ambitious program of education and therapy in music and dance for disabled children and adults, and in the mid-1980s incorporated the Kardon Institute as a separate, allied institution. Kardon later spun off into an independent organization, and upon the Institute’s closing in 2014, Settlement launched its Kardon Center for Arts Therapy.

In the late 1980s Settlement merged with the Jenkintown Music School to create a fourth branch (which moved to a brand new facility in 2011 to become the Willow Grove Branch) and founded a fifth branch in the Wynnewfield neighborhood of West Philadelphia.

In 2002, Settlement extended its services to students in Camden, New Jersey.

Moore Brothers wines taste better.

Why?

It starts in the vineyard. We select our wines from artisan, natural, sustainable wine growers with whom we’ve formed long-term, personal relationships.

Unique in the world market, all of our growers’ wines are treated with the respect their work (and your palate) deserve.

Dress warmly when you visit Moore Brothers Wine Company.

PMA is different—for 38 years its guiding investment principle has been the management of risk in its clients’ portfolios.

No one knows the future, and no one can forecast market performance, but nothing produces consistent returns like the rigorous quantitative analysis and thoughtful pragmatism that is at the core of PMA’s investment process.

Founded in 1982, PMA manages about one billion dollars in client assets, including those of high net worth individuals and not-for-profit corporations.
